FREIGHT CARS COLLIDE.

An Engineer Scalded to Death-Several Trainmen Injured.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 18 .- [Special ]-At 4:40 this morning a through freight train on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore san into a local freight near Newport. The engineer of the latter train was killed. The accident occurred a quarter of a mile north of Newport on the main line of the of Newport on the main line of the road.

When the crash came the engineer and firemen of the local freight jumped. Engineer Harry Brockman, of Baltimore, was killed. His body was found under a freight car. He was not mangled but scalded to death. Fireman Jones of Baltimore, had his face cut and arm bruised, Conductor John Morrison, of Wilmington, also of the local freight was badly bruised. Fifteen cars were wrecked. Travel was blocked nearly five hours. Both trains were moving north. The local freight had left some cars on a siding and started for Wilmington, when the through freight came dashing into its rear. It is believed that on account of the fog Enginer Brockman failed to see the signal until too late. signal until too late.

A Daugerous Sidewalk.

The board walks on Campbell street, between the Didier building and Marshall's Cafe, and on the north side of Campbell street, between the Asberry building and Henry street, are in a very dangerous coudition Many of the planks are loose and in some places several of them have been removed, making bad holes, which cannot be seen on a dark night. Pedestrians are in danger of being injured as the walks now are.

Mr. Sister Loses a Daughter.
Allie J. Sister, aged about 12 years, daughter of G. W. Sister, the undertaker, died yesterday evening at 4:15 o'cleck. The little girl had been a great but patient sufferer for a long time. but patient sufferer for a long time. She was a constant attendant of Lee street M. E. Sunday school, of which she was a member. The funeral will take place Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock from Lee Street Church.

To Celebrate the Bridge Opening.

It has been suggested by a member of the Council that when the Randolph street bridge is completed, it be opened with appropriate ceremonies. He thinks the Machine Works Band should be en-gaged and an interesting programme gotten up.
